JEAN ELIOTS LETTER'

Susan dear: Shakespeare leads us believe that there isn't much in a name; but somehow the average person rather particular about having his or her name correctly pronounced or spelled, and when I see one name written in about seven different ways it always rouses my curiosity and determines me to find out, if possible, the how of the thing. So it is with the new Minister of Costa Rica. The newspapors have taken shocking liberties with his name, but I am informed by the powers that be at the State Department and at the legation that it is Quesada, Senor Manuel Castro Quesada And Senor Quesada is a statesman of some note-he was minister of education in his own country-a man of wide culture, numerous social graces—and a bachelor! What more need I say?

In the matter of being the baby member of the diplomatic corps, Senor Quesada succeeds Dr. Zaldivar, the minister of Salvador, who has been in this country only a few months. Senora Zaldivar is a charming English Woman, young and very pretty, and the anomaly of the haif grown young people of the family is explained by the fact that she is the Minister's sec-

Dr. Zaldivar and his wife are planning to leave Washington next week for a motor trip through the cities of the North and the Northwest and a cruise about the Great Lakes. The children, Margarita, who is sixteen, and the boy. Rafael, are spending the summer at Miss Read's camp at Abingdon, Va.

When Ned McLean meanders into the town of Leesburg from his country, place nearby he creates no little stir by his curious wearing apparel, and is usually followed by a train of staring natives. Although he has not been known to have mounted a horse this summer, he generally wears a startling looking riding costume, a pair of white breeches and extremely long coat, with cutaway front and broad tall, made after the manner of the pinkest of pink hunting coat. A pitch helmet, like these worn in the tropics, boots, spurs and a came or crop completes his wierd

The members of the McLean family seem to spend most of their time on the read which leads from their place to Leesburg, passing back and forth as many as a score of times a day; and, indeed, the gossip is that the company which controls the pike is thinking of registering a protest. The McLeans subscribed to the company when they first went to Leesburg, which gives them the privileges of the road; but the canny folk who are running things in those parts feel that there is such a thing as abusing a privilege and are thinking of demanding another sub-

Colonel W. W. Harts is another man who is partial to riding clothes, but attache, which caused a small sensa- who has been on duty at the quarterthen he is atop a horse every chance tion. This has proved untrue, how- master's depot, expects to sail early lated to all the Merrymans and Cockeys he gets. He looks particularly fit in ever. The young people are not stayhis togs, too. I see him frequently on ing with the Lynches, but are occupyHuston. She is now in New York, country. She came over to Washington the cars these days, evidently just re- ing a cottage near the Monmouth Hotel, where the captain will join her next last winter, for one of Margaret Howturning from a ride through the park. They have attended several of the inor out into the country, but the exerformal hops in company with the for a month at some resort. Major hit. And in Baltimore she was decidedly of electric lights and flowers massed Lake during the week. everywhere, is not particularly silur ng; but still, don't you want to know some-tive girls, who have already had a sea- cations. It seems that the encampson of informal gayety, and who can ment, which is arranged for the conlook forward to their formal presentation with none of the qualins which usually beset a debutante-Callie Hoke Smith, Lillian Hendrick and Elizabeth Harding. Elizabeth decided against coming out last year, when she was practically a stranger in Washington; Lillian was still studying, although she took part in a great many festivities during the winter and had a glorious time, and Callie well, Callie just didn't trouble. And, from the ready recome out formally.

Now, however, they have decided that they might just as well enjoy all the pleasant things that go with the busitractive daughter, will also be a bud. and Mrs. Summerlin are always faith-likewise Catherine Harlow, Dorothea fi to the Thousand Island region, makes her home with her grandmother, a summer home.

gett is hospitality incarnate, her house Plattsburg Barracks, has recently been is charmingly arranged for entertain- joined by her mother, Mrs. Samuel ing, and is nearly always filled with at- Wallis, and the two of them have taken tractive young people. Moreover, the a cunning little cottage on the lake huge success under Mrs. Blodgett's wing the rest of the summer. and her daughter's lines will truly be cast in pleasant places.

Then there is an even chance that Edith Blair will be presented. She was time ago seems not to have been very listed among the debs of last year, but was then still a school girl and even now Mrs. Blair has not made up her mind whether her daughter shall devote an extra year to study or come out with her playmates. With her connection with the aristocratic and influential Blair family and with the Drapers as well-Mrs. Blair was Edith Draper-she should be a very important young person and her debut an event of considerable interest.

Spring Lake, N. J., was very gay last night and filled with interesting people who came by motor from sundry resorts along the Jersey coast to attend the ball given for Governor and Mrs. Fielder at the New Monmouth Hotel. This was distinctly the largest and most formal affair of the season; a supper was served at midnight, and the ball was preceded by a score of gay dinner parties at the New Monmouth grill. The Secretary of War and Mrs. Garrison were among the guests, and likewise the Secretary to the President, Mr. Tumulty, and Mrs. Tumulty, who have a villa at Avon for the summer. Governor and Mrs. Fielder are occupying the attractive place at Seagirt, where President Wilson formerly spent some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Themas O'Sullivan are the center of a good deal of interes and their appearance on the tenn courts was taken to mean that Mrs O'Sullivan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. per Lynch, whose place at Lakewood is

- 4-

MISS HELEN P. BLODGETT.

Murray Cobb and Cotton Smith are thing about next season's buds? Al- going to Plattsburg early in August ready the list contains some interesting | for the military instruction, to which so many prominent young men inrough-Here are a trio of unusually attrac- out the East are giving up their vavenience of business men, is an outgrowth of the student camp, held every summer under the auspices of the regular army. General Wood decided to extend the scope of the institution to include such young men as were willing to give the time to preparation, in order to be of some immediate use to their country in case of sponse he has had from cities all over this part of the country, the encampment would seem to fill a real need. Mrs. Cobb is preparing to spend the weeks of her husband's absence with ness of being a debutante, and some her mother, Mrs. Huff, who has rented time before next Christmas they will a houseboat for the summer and plans each have a perfectly good tea. Georgia a delightful cruise among the Thou-Schofield, Mrs. John II. Hewson's et- sand Islands. The John A. Johnstons Fremont Smith, and Lucy Hall, who where they have the loveliest sort of Helen Blodgett will also come out, and Virginia Wallis, who has been visitit would seem that no girl in town ing Sallie Wainwright Bull and her could have a better time. Mrs. Blod- husband, Lieut. Henry T. Bull, at Porcher girls and Daisy Peck have had near Plattsburg, where they will spend

Mrs. N. O. Messenger is ill again at her apartment in Hammond court. The operation which she underwent some successful, for she is now under the care of a trained nurse. Another person who is likely to have rather a dreary summer through illness is Mrs William Burr Harrison, who has been William Burr Harrison, who has been quite ill and will probably not be herself again until fall. With her children and her nicce, Mary Wheeler Vest, she is spending the summer with Elizabeth Hopkins Hinchman at "Grove Hill," one of the several Hopkins farms near Sandy Spring. Mr. Harrison, who is at their town house, makes several trips a week to Grove Hill, but has tired of the "litney" which runs from Silver Spring up into that country and is now arranging to buy a good looking Overland car.

Dorothy Deeble is also on the sick list, but will soon be about again after an operation which was performed recently at the Episcopal Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital. Dorothy and Elizabeth are spending the summer at Sandy Spring, and Fred Chapin is also passing a few months out there, resting and tathering his strength after the serious liness which resulted from a fall from his horse in the spring.

Moreover, whooping cough seems to e besieging the summer resorts. Cuning little Virginia Glazebrook proceded to catch the disease shortly fter she and her mother, Mrs. Larkin linzebrook, reached Cap May, with the gult that they had to leave the hotel here they were stopping and take a

Several army officers, who have been of the show places of that region, stationed in Washington for some for their new post. Or, again, they Panama Canal.

ama-Pacific Exposition, as was her San Francisco again on her return Murdaugh will be with them most of already a contributor to a number of trip, and will reach this city about August and later Margaret will have magazines. Mrs. Mayo, by the way, is Fishers Island, that delightful summer resort in Connecticut, seems to be quite a rendezvous for army people this summer. A number of service folk, stationed in Washington, are sojourning there, among them Col. and Mrs. Richmond P. Davis, who motored north; while Col. and Mrs. George H. Cameron and Major and Mrs. James Camby are to leave town this week. Major and Mrs. Cameron will go direct to Fishers Island, but the Canbys will visit in New York and Connecticut first, reaching there some time next month.

Ensign Laurence Riheldaffer and his bride, formerly Vittoria Tittoni, who were quietly married last week, did not go away for a wedding trip. Instead. they are spending a few weeks at the apartment of Vittoria's brother and sister-in-law, Lieut, and Mrs. Renato Tittoni, U. S. M. C., in the Sagamore, 1821 toni, U. S. M. C., in the Sagamore, 1821 S street, where the marriage took place. Ensign Riheldaffer, you see, is taking or is just about to take his examinations for promotion. They have Ensign Riheldaffer's mother with them for a little while, and meanwhile Lieutenant and Mrs. Tittoni are spending the summer at Port Jefferson, Long Island. The marriage is the culmination of a courtship begun at the Naval Hospital, where Ensign Riheldaffer has been on sick leave since last Deember and where Vittoria was a nurse. Vittoria was a nurse.

Pretty little Edith McCormick, who is visiting Kitty Knight in Newport, is

PAPER DRINKING CUPS

8 oz., per 100...... 60c 12 oz., per 100......75c

-and other needs in paper in great variety at most reasonable prices.

"If It's Made of Paper You Can Get It At Andrews'

R. P. Andrews Paper Company 727-729-731 13th St. N. W.

A Chronicle of the daughter of Medical Director Albert Montgomery Dupuy McCormick and Mrs. McCormick, who are stationed at the Naval Academy in Annapolis. She is a cousin of Hannah McCormick, who visits them in Annapolis quite frequently. Hannah is not only very pretty, but extremely popular and has been very much missed in Washington since her family moved to Westminster, Md. Kitty and Edith became very chummy, when the former's father, Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight, lived in Annapolis.

Society

Although Eloise Orme has only been at Cape May, N. J., about a week she has already won honors as the best dancer at that resort where many fine cancers congregate. Last, week she was presented a very handsome silver loving cup for being the best dancer at the Red Mill, that popular dancing pavilion just of the boardwalk near the Chalfonte Hotel. Eloise has won many competitions right here in Washington-usually at the tea dances given for some charity. She was also the winner of the tuo which Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle presented when they came to the Columbia Theater, season before last, with their own set of dancers and charmed their Washington audiences.

The Todd youngsters, children of the James Ross Todds and nephews and nieces of Madame Hauge, are the most indefatigable little people at Hot Springs They ride, swim, play tennis, and occasionally their elders join them for a horseback trip. Dr. George Poulieff, of the Bulgarian legation, is colony, and as a consequence is a bit of or cottage dinner of any importance. Also he seems to have a faculty for getting great enjoyment out of life.

The Charles Reid Rileys are spending the first two weeks of their honeymoon at the Homestead, and have found a number of acquaintances among the Miss Minnie Conrad, is the heiress to half of her father's $8,000,000 estate. They will live at Boyce, Va.

Mrs. Richard Ewell Thornton, of Pairfax, Va., and Washington, who is visiting Mrs. Garrett Andrews on Lookout mountain, is a much-feted person. She has friends all over the South, and people in that part of Tennessee have entertained her right soyally. Mrs. Andrews gave a dinner for her one evening last week at the Lookout Mountain Club, and another day she enter tained the Lookout Mountain Card Club n compliment to her popular guest.

A rumor is going the rounds in Balti more that the engagement of Eleanor Bosley, one of last season's debutantes, to young Stanley Gary, will be the next had forgiven their daughter for her time, are scheduled to go to Honolulu bit of news to interest society folk in elopement with the young White House this fall. Capt. James B. Houston, the Monumental City. Eleanor is one of the Cockeysville Bosleys and is recise never seems to affect his spick and spearence.

Right now the idea of a debutante tea, with heavily shaded windows, quantities are as a visitor at Spring of the seasone or mountains for places near the Catonsville Country sinning to feel at home. The same resort. Major the And in Seithnore she was decidedly Mr. and Mrs. George Mayo and their one of the most popular of the sister, Miss Marguerite Lynon. and Mrs. Edgar Russell have also been of the most popular of the most popul

> Mrs. J. D. Murdaugh is go Mrs. Frank Freeman, instead of who have taken a house for the summer, to live they have occupied a charming coming directly home from the Pan- Harry and Margaret have a very attrac- apartment in the St. Regis. ama-Pacific Exposition, as was her tive apartment, but whenever it is Mr. Mayo has a delightful voice, and plan when she left Washington, is possible they rent a house, with a is one of the soloists at Epiphany now on a delightful trip which will garden, for the summer months instead Church, while their three sons are all take her through Oregon, Washington of going away, which gives them an unusually talented and attractive boys. and up into Alaska. She will stop in opportunity to have visitors. Mrs. Morrow Mayo, who is just eighteen, is the end of August. Then after a few her cousin, Cornelia Brackenridge, of a cousin of Mrs. Buckner, whose son, days rest here, she will go to East Pittsburgh, as her guest for a short Lieut. Simon Bolliver Buckner, named Gloucester, to remain until the late time. Cornella and her sister Helen, for the famous Confederate general, is who is now Mrs. Frank Painter, used on duty in the office of the Superinto visit Margaret frequently when she tendent of Public Buildings and day, and right now is visiting her woe. daughter, Barbour Walker, in New member, is now at the head of a school for English-speaking girls at Bagulo, the lovely mountain resort in the Phil- tainly there have never before been so ippines, which is connected with Manila many stay at homes at a time when by a splendid military road and where the American contingent in Mantia vs wont to spend the hot season. Baguio McKenney, who with her husband and has an exceptionally gracious climate family, is at their attractive country and scenery that is rarely equaled.

Mrs. Walker's school is also called the Cathedral School for Girls, and is conducted under the wing of Bishop Brent, She has done a notable work in the past two years in establishing the school on a permanent footing, and Americans who live in the Philippines are loud in praise of what she has done for their girls. At the conclusion of her holiday she will go back and will reach Baguio in time for the opening of school in the early autumn.

Barbour Walker, who is an interestng girl, with a look of her mother, is living in New York, and is making a great success of some sort of advertising bureau which she has started. When Mrs. Walker leaves New York, early in August, she will go to Ban Francisco for a short visit to Bishop Morelands and gis family, and then, late in the More of the day and, in the Middle West. Society from many parts of the United States was represented. There was just one cloud to the event. Unable to patch up what her plans and gis family, and then, late in the women folk to be satisfied with a most attend. She was to have been maid of honor. The place in the line and his family, and then, late in the month, she will sail from Takoma, Wash., for her post.

One of the most interesting visitors that Washington has known in many moons is Miss Helen Wong, a dainty the only diplomat in the Hot Springs little Chinese lady, who is the guest of Miss Margaret Morrison at her nome a lion, and is a guest at every hotel in Riggs street, and who expects to attend school in Washington next winter. Miss Wong is a daughter of T. T. Wong, now director-general of Chiness students in this country, who some time ago completed the monumental work of translating Webster's dictionary into Chinese and has also a Chi-Washington folk. Mrs. Riley, who was nese translation of Meyer's General History to his credit.

Their home is in Shanghai, where the Morrisons first knew them during the ears they lived in China. After the manner of high-class and aristocratic Chinese, they are highly cultivated, and Dr. Wong has a great reputation as a scholar. Little Miss Helen speaks English fivently, and has a quaint and very charming manner. She wears her native costume, and is unusually pretty, with almond eyes and clear olive skin.

She is a close friend of Miss Shah, the Chinese minister's daughter, and the two girls make a very charming picture together. . The Shahs, by the way, are staying in town, as Madame Shah finds home much the most comfortable place with a young baby to care for. Moreover, the legation on the Nineteenth street hill, overlooking the sloping lawns and the great trees of the Dean place opposite, is a very comfortable and desirable place these days. The minister is back, after establishing his young son in a boys' camp at Hendersonville, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mayo and their with heavily shaded windows, quantities dero of Mexico, was a visitor at Spring a while, or stay here until they start Club. Bowling Green, Ky., for many years, and out to Mrs. Mayo comes of old Kentucky stock, Huntington, W. Va., to visit her son- though Mr. Mayo is an Englishman by in-law and daughter, the Harry Grays, birth. Since they came to Washington was Margaret Murdaugh and lived in Grounds. The Buckners live at the Washington. Cornella has been taking Wyoming.

a dourse in art this summer.

I gather from the few people who

Mrs. Barbour Walker, who is so af- have already returned from their sumfectionately remembered by scores of mer trips, and from letters that the Washington girls as the popular prin-cipal of the Cathedral School for Girls season. Rows of empty cottages greet before Miss McDonald took over the the summer visitors and the merchants position, is in this country for holi-, and shop keepers tell a shocking tale of It is generally remarked that more York. Mrs. Walker, as you may re- people have remained in Washington this summer than before, more people of wealth and fashion, that is, and cer-Congress was not in session. I was talking the other day to Mrs. Charles McKenney, who with her husband and home on the Seventh street pike, near Forest Glen, and she spoke particularly of the number of interesting people yet to be seen at the weekly dances at the Chevy Chase Club.

In addition to the official contingent themselves thoroughly and to be more than a little surprised at how comfort-

Most of them take frequent week-end trips, usually in their motors, country shorter holiday, and decrease the number of semi-detached husbands.

If you must get a little dog, Susan, came Wednesday evening when the get a little white beastle all same like the one which is Mrs. Robert Lansing's constant companion. A veritable powder puff of a pup, he is nevertheless that has spent the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich excused herself by announcing that has spent the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich excused herself by announcing that has spent the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich excused herself by announcing that has spent the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich might not attenue to the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich might not attenue to the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich might not attenue to the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich might not attenue to the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich might not attenue to the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich might not attenue to the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich might not attenue to the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich might not attenue to the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich might not attenue to the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich might not attenue to the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Goodrich might not attenue to the past two weeks at Miss Barker's "cottage." Miss Barker's "cottage." very bright and keen, and seems particularly to enjoy riding in the machine with his mistress. He stands on his hind legs in Mrs. Lansing's lap, with his front feet on the steering bar, and looks for all the world as if he were looks for all the world as if he were responsible for the navigating of the machine. He is the same breed o' dog as that adorable fluff of a "Cutle" Cottrell, who lives next door to us and who used to dance out to meet you in the days when you used to come occathe days when you used to come occasionally to visit your friend. JEAN ELIOT.

P. S.-There, I hope you are sufficiently ashamed of your remiseness, and will manage to squeeze in a few days in Washington before you go Sunday

National Food Show

To Set High Record

The sixtieth national food show and industrial exposition by the Washington grocers at Convention Hall, November 1 to 13, will be the biggest in history, on the present showing.

Secretary Perry P. Patrick, of the Retail Grocers' Protective Association, has just returned from a tour of North-ern and Eastern cities in the interest of the show, and announces that more both space has been sold than ever before at this date.

Playlet at School.

An entertainment for the school play-

SANS BRIDEGROOM

"Slight Misunderstanding" Results in Slight Jar at Barker-Spaulding Ceremony.

HARBOR APRINGS, Mich., Aug. 1.— It wouldn't have made a bit of difference to the bride today if the words with all my worldly goods I thee endow" had been left out of the ceremony. The bride, with $30,000,000 to do with as she pleased has ample for and the important army and navy folk who are here for the summer, there are the Ned Mitchells, the Walter Tuckermans, the Montgomery Blairs and liter. The bridegroom is Howard H. Spauldally dozens of others. And what is more ing. jr., of Chicago. She is nineteen the stay at homes seem to be enjoying and Spaulding barely turned into mot attend. She was to have been maid of honor. The place in the line she was to have filled was vacant. The first knowledge the guests had that Miss Goodrich might not attend party proper, every one wore almost informal, but very comfortable, summery clothes.

"man's estate." The two were married before one of the largest gathering of friends who have ever witnessed a nuptial ceremony in the Middle West. &

The ceremony was the single ring service pronounced by Father J. J. Bleckman, chaplain of the Michigan City State Prison. Miss Barker was given away by her guardian, James B. Forgan, president of the First Na-tional Bank of Chicago. Following the ceremony and a brief informal re-ception and dinner, the wedding party boarded a special night train for Chi-

Mrs. Ellis Logan to Talk At Ocean Grove Meeting

Mrs. Ellis Logan, formerly president f the District of Columbia Federation of Women's Clubs, and now president of the Fibrence Crittenton Mission here, will address an audience in the auditorium at Ocean Grove, N. J., next Tuesday.

Gerard's Aide Sails.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 .- G. W. Minot, private secretary to Ambassador Ger-An entertainment for the school playgrounds will be given at the Bryan School on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Songs, dances, and a playlet,
"Little Men," will make up the pro-

"The House of Quality" All Summer Apparel Without Reserve Goes In Our August Sale

Which begins Monday at 8:15 a. m. All sales must be final. A partial list of the remarkable offerings

DRESSES IN ALL MATERIALS White and colors, regular and extra sizes, now offered at $3.98 Former prices were up to $12.50. WASH SKIRTS REDUCED

$1.00 $1.98 $2.98 $3.98 Were up to $6.50. Finest materials in all sizes. COATS REDUCED-$10, $12.50, $15 Former prices were up to $25.

Waists Reduced-Lingerie, Silk, Net, Lace, etc. $1.95 Former prices were up to $6.00.

Give away prices on remaining lots of Summer Millinery. See Tables 1st Floor.

Mayer Bros. & Co. 937-939 F St. N.W. No Branch Stores

STEINWAY

And Other PIANOS

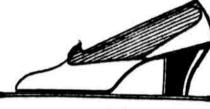

-PLAYER-PIANOS-

Victor Victrolas and Records

E. F. DROOP & SONS CO.

1300 G Street

Values $3.50 to $4.50, Now. . .

Many prudent shoppers are attending this Annual Mid-summer Clearance of the famous Queen Quality Shoes. This timely event affords an opportunity to buy these dainty shoes at a mere fraction of the standard prices at which they are sold throughout the country.

We have an almost unlimited variety of smart Summer models-all of the popular novelty combinations of cloth, leather, and color are included.

Come early and share in this value-giving sale. Remember, bargains fly!

Palais Royal

A. Lisner

11th & G Shoe Dept.-2d Floor